

Pet Community Resources

A list of community resources put together with the help of local partners to help keep you and your pets together.

Are you experiencing unwanted behaviors with your pet?

- Connect with this list of free/discounted community trainers to assist you in working through these behaviors.
 - Ex: Contact Info
- Visit <website URL> to learn about common behavior complaints and ways to address them in the home.

Looking to rehome your pet?

- Check out this list of local social media and rescue groups
 - Ex: Contact Info
- You can also try:
 - Adopt-A-Pet
 - PetBond.com
 - Get Your Pet

Have you connected with your community network?

When looking to rehome a pet a lot of the time Friends, Family, Neighbors, and Co-Workers can be an untapped resource. Whether it is permanent or temporary try rehoming your pet through your personal network of people for help.

Social Media is another great tool for sharing out information about your pet.

Are you in need of housing assistance?

- Local Affordable Housing List that allows pets.
- Rapid Rehoming Resources
 - <>
- Legal Resources
 - <>

Keeping pet and families together within their communities.

Would you like pet food assistance?

- This is a list of the pet food pantries in the area:
 - <>

Has your pet been fixed?

- These clinics provide low cost or free spay neuter to qualifying participants.
 - <>
- Contact this TNR Program/Group for help getting cats in your community fixed.
 - <>

Is your pet in need of medical care?

- For General Low-Cost Medical Assistance:
 - <>
- Heartworm prevention program:
 - <>
- Heart worm treatment program:
 - <>

Other Resources

- Ex: A volunteer run Owner Surrender Hotline that patrons can contact to discuss problems they are having and resources they can be connected to.

If surrendering your pet is the only option < > is available to take animals in by appointment. Contact <shelter name> at < > to schedule an appointment.